1) In the evening hour I allow them to take off her shoes, stockings, and outer garments, to be uncumbered in her rump. One evening, one of ~~the~~ remaining under garments, having been made an expanded pattern, presented a bagging appearance, her Aunt <sup>was</sup> called her "Little Dutchman". "Mamma" did not know what to mean, nor, the cause of her laughter, but, conscious of "ridicule", expostulated "No, Aunt Biddy, do not call me little Dutch; I am not Dutch. Father calls me "little chicken", and "little bird" and "little angel"; but he not calls me little Dutch";

2) She is demonstrative; and, to show her love, she often pats any part of my body with what she calls "love-patks". One day she startled me; - "When I go up Heaven, I see my dear Mother and my dear Jesus, I give them love-patks".

4) At table she repeats the clause of the blessing asked, "for Jesus sake"; - "Father! give bread me." "Yes, dear, I heard you, I like to hear you pray so." "Jesus, in Heaven, hears me." "He <sup>all day</sup> sees <sup>he sees</sup> ~~you~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~for~~ <sup>for</sup> ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> you and his little child." "Heaven is not far." "No, my dear me." "Only the clouds cover up; we see only sky."

5) She, night-stories, for whom repetition she is <sup>just the same</sup> calling, are the Creation & Fall of Angels, and the Crucifixion. She interrupts me to voluntarily <sup>express</sup> ~~ask~~ "Father comes in my heart and tells me not to do what I <sup>you</sup> ~~let~~ <sup>me</sup> to do. There I pray Jesus."

"Heaven" and "Jews" are familiar words in her thought, and used daily in her improvised songs, especially during the afternoon hour-and-a-half, while she ~~was~~ awake in her crib.

Mary's — Daying For the story of her Infancy

June 7. My father read to me your letter. I <sup>understand</sup> ~~remember~~ all <sup>what</sup> you say. But you do not <sup>know</sup> ~~know~~ I will be <sup>tried</sup> to <sup>do</sup> up the <sup>steps</sup> to your work-room. I am a strong girl, because I eat plenty. I had <sup>did have</sup> plenty picky heat [boils & eruptions], but my father gave me <sup>little</sup> <sup>team</sup> [gummi] and 2 other kinds of team [medicines] & <sup>these</sup> <sup>kinds</sup> of Jesus made me well. I not cry when my father gave me team; I just drifts it down quick. P. I know my letters; but I ~~do~~ not know how to write. So my father says he will write for me, and I ~~will~~ tell him <sup>the</sup> <sup>und</sup> <sup>to</sup> say. P. I ~~will~~ tell you what I do every day. P. I sleep in <sup>my</sup> <sup>own</sup> <sup>room</sup> with in my father's room. My bed cub is ~~near~~ <sup>near</sup> to his bed, ~~if~~ <sup>if</sup> I ~~do~~ get awake at night and call "Father!" he can reach over from his bed, put his hand on my head, and say, "What is it, little daughter?" P. When I get awake in the morning, I jump over <sup>into</sup> my father's bed, and play with him; if he is <sup>there</sup>. But I ~~do~~ <sup>do</sup> not <sup>always</sup> get awake as soon as he does; sometimes he has rung the prayer-bell, and ~~has~~ gone to the Prayer-Room, to <sup>laurea</sup> [sing] with <sup>the</sup> <sup>the</sup> people <sup>in</sup> work. When ~~the~~ bell rings, Mwanyeno <sup>and</sup> <sup>Ma</sup> <sup>Jamie</sup> comes to dress me. <sup>Ma</sup> <sup>Jamie</sup> <sup>comes</sup> <sup>too</sup> to talk nicely with me, for I like her, and she is very kind to me. My father calls her Anjintyema, and some people call her Fando. And her little girl Iga comes too with her kitten, to play <sup>with</sup> <sup>me</sup> while I dress. <sup>mine's</sup> <sup>Kitty</sup> does not like to come; it likes only to be wild. Iga's name is Iga-nāmba [Green-wood], and her mother calls her Oyongumo [Remembrance], and some people call her Jessamine. But I call her only Iga. She is <sup>7</sup> <sup>years</sup> <sup>older</sup> than I. And we play all the time. P. When my father comes back from the mess, I say my prayer to him, and then we sit down to table, - my father, and Auntie Belle, and Ma Jamie, and Iga, and me, all together. P. When I am done eating, <sup>we</sup> <sup>feed</sup> <sup>don</sup>, and my cats Falaba & Tommy, & mine's Kitty and Iga's, and <sup>my</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>chickens</sup> and <sup>my</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>ducks</sup>. P. Then we say my lesson <sup>to</sup> my father in the Study, I can spell B-a = Ba; and I know the Catechism <sup>to</sup> [C. for young children P.B.P.] to "I spread Adam with life if he obeyed Him" [Amen 25]. Then I do many things; - I go with Mungus, and Adza and Ngwa [2 Fair boys] to the Chapel, when the ground is wet, and run around the bushes; Or, we take the mallets and knock croquet balls along the <sup>flame</sup> <sup>paths</sup> of the garden; Or, when Ombaga [the cows] is making bread, he gives me a piece of dough

(Mary's diary) -

Arranged in rather raggy garments, her Aunt called her "Little Dutch woman." "No, Aunt Bella, do not call me little Dutch, seem I am not Dutch, you call me "little chicken" and "little bird", and "little angel", but he does not call me "little Dutch".

"When I go up Heaven, I'll carry dear Mother & my dear year, I give them love - 'pauks'."

At table she reports: "The crown of being 'for your sake'. 'Father, you hear me?' 'Yes, I heard,' 'I like to hear you say so', 'I'm near you', 'Yes he does if you are His little child', 'Heaven is my home', 'By the blood, come up; we see they

she might stop she now is calling you is the children & fall of Angels; and the 'Crispion'; the voluntary assembly of later sometime come in her heart; & a few to not want to do what I tell her "then I pray Jesus".

"Heaven" & "you" are doing in her mind & soul, the afternoon 1 1/2 hour while she lies awake in her crib.

and I make cakes: Or, I dig holes with my shovel and wheel-barrow; I pretend I make garden like my father: Or, I swing, or play Kisuta [see-saw] under the house: Or, I play on the floor [alphabet blocks] or Piles<sup>of sticks</sup> [dissected birds & animals] in <sup>my father's</sup>
she sits there and sews, <sup>and</sup> <sup>reads</sup> his and mine letters <sup>while</sup> <sup>he</sup> <sup>writes</sup>.
Or: I do many other plays: - I help Ajegu sweep Aunt Pallas room with my little broom; Or I look at Aunt Pallas plants <sup>in</sup> <sup>her</sup> boxes, when she takes the white ants away <sup>when</sup> <sup>we</sup> <sup>are</sup> done dinner <sup>there</sup> <sup>is</sup> <sup>no</sup> <sup>play</sup> <sup>for</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>men</sup>, and <sup>Ajegu</sup>, and all the boys, & Mungyone, <sup>and</sup> <sup>eat</sup> <sup>and</sup> <sup>rest</sup> <sup>in</sup> <sup>their</sup> <sup>own</sup> <sup>houses</sup>, and <sup>my</sup>
and <sup>she</sup> <sup>reads</sup> <sup>stories</sup> <sup>to</sup> <sup>me</sup>; but sometimes <sup>they</sup> <sup>are</sup> <sup>sleepy</sup>, and I am sleepy too. P. Then when the bell rings for work again, Mungyone comes and undresses me, and puts me to bed. Then <sup>I</sup> <sup>am</sup> <sup>not</sup> <sup>sleepy</sup>, for I hear Iga playing out of doors, I only <sup>peep</sup> <sup>and</sup> <sup>pretend</sup> <sup>talk</sup> to myself, till my father comes and says, "It is 3 o'clock, it is 3 o'clock! Jump up!" Then I jump into his arms, and say "Father! Carry me"; and he carries me a little while, and Mungyone & my Gannie ~~and~~ come to dress me, and Iga comes, and tells me if she found a toad [frog] in the Brass, P.
Then I run out to Aunt Pallas school in the Pagan-Room, & pay my dues, and sing with the Fair boys. I like to sing, "Jigake ve me dzani & nyine" [I drink the water of life will give] P.
When school is done, O, then, it is nice, I carry water in my little jug <sup>with</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>boy</sup> <sup>from</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>Spring</sup>, - and I play on the smooth soft grass <sup>in</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>shade</sup> <sup>of</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>mountain</sup>, & <sup>bands</sup> <sup>I</sup> <sup>lay</sup> <sup>on</sup> cloud-wood-boughs. Only, Don, wakes us too much trouble. I <sup>do</sup> <sup>not</sup> like <sup>that</sup> <sup>man</sup>. He makes me fell: Or I walk up the hill <sup>to</sup> <sup>Peinas</sup> home <sup>when</sup> <sup>my</sup> <sup>dear</sup> <sup>mother</sup> <sup>did</sup>. P. And <sup>some</sup> <sup>paper</sup> <sup>is</sup> <sup>done</sup>, and <sup>that</sup> <sup>is</sup> <sup>that</sup>; and the people are all done their work, and in their own houses, and my Gannie is in the kitchen making hot water for bathing herself, I do only her things, <sup>and</sup> <sup>talk</sup> <sup>with</sup> <sup>my</sup> <sup>father</sup> in the front garden, when he sees the tree grow, & then we go to my dear mother's grave. ~~That is when~~ I like to go there, my father lets me play on the big white stone, and I began to learn A. B. C. then Journey to the Ogove Churches

Thursday Dec. 12.

Rose, before 5. A. M., and had the boxes and luggage all ready; but, my people did not come promptly. Ogula came, and I inquired how it was that Jamie H.'s brass kettle had been taken out of the house, while the key was in his care: the investigation was not satisfactory. Time was passing, for starting on journey; and, after all but 2 loads had been sent to the water-side, I went down, in advance, to Avolindi, to hurry the loading of the boat. The crew had done but little, and Jamie H. annoyed me very much, by coming late & unskillfully failing to leave the boys I left with her bring all the packages; so I had to wait, while one man had to go back for it. Started at 8.30. A. M. wanted the crew to pull fast, so as to eat at Wombaliya: but they did not; & we ate in the forest: then, when I stopped at Wombaliya, to let Jane (Gacita's wife) [Wombatis] (Dec. 1889) (2) go ashore, the 4 young men of the town scattered, to see their people, though I forbade them to do so: they were so long in returning, ~~that~~ I pushed off, and left one of them, - Wona, - behind. He pursued in a canoe; but, did not overtake us.

(He <sup>afterward</sup> found passage, in a canoe of Elder Young, who was following us). I was very much amazed at the affair: - Very threatening clouds; - met the "Oviro": - Reached Igenja, shortly after 5 P.M., shortly ~~at~~ before rain began to come. - <sup>Elder</sup> Wona was sick.

and had failed to prepare ~~the~~ places for us: - Māngiaima & <sup>(Daniel)</sup> Londo, were not hospitable, and did not give up their good houses, but gave us poor houses, and made it necessary for me and Wona to separate, our 2 houses being far apart.

Rain & wind, and a pest of winged ants, at night while we were eating.

Sat up late, thinking over the unkindness of the people, in giving me & Wona such poor entertainment, while good lodging and lights had been reserved for my Galera crew, <sup>for the satisfaction of</sup> Mr. Allegret (who is not coming), <sup>and for</sup> Mr. Yongwe: Determined to leave the village early in the morning, and notified my crew so: Went to bed late, depressed with the succession of annoyances of the day: Rather a tedious beginning of a new volume of my Diary!

Friday Dec. 13th

Rose early, and began to send my baggage to the boat: Sent for Abumba, to see if he or Mamba could provide me better lodging than I had in Kolo: Manguina & Lorde came to ask the reason of my going; I rebuted them both for having given me such poor entertainment: Went to Abumba's village near by, and had excellent entertainment in Mamba's house: Pleasant surroundings: Eggs & plantains & iguana & fowls & potatoes, brought for sale: Ombiangwan's widow & her fat little boy: Kuita, Bayis, and Simbuve & people from Oranga: Small meeting, at night, in Chapel: Organised session-meeting: Comfortable sleep at night.

Saturday Dec. 14th. At session-meeting, all the morning :- writing in afternoon, till 4. P.M., when we went to Preparatory Service :- In the afternoon, had been receiving the church-gifts of plantains and igwaa :- And, bagh, for myself, fowls, and eggs :- In the evening, a wild pig, caught in a trap, was brought to town, & I bought a leg for 2 bars of soap :- Meeting at night, and session-meeting afterward.

Sabbath , Dec. 15 th	} Two Baptisms, of adults, on Sabbath morn :- Jamie H. partots of the elements :- In the evening, came on a storm, that prevented having meeting :- On Monday , did not hasten, and so did not start till 10. A.M. Before leaving the village, went to see <sup>elder</sup> Wora; & he asked me to build an addition to his house, to accommodate me, at the next season, 3 months hence :- Stopped at Blambagens, for dinner. And at "Liverpool", for the night. Very good quarters, in Oselow's house: - was somewhat annoyed at the unwillingness of the crew, to carry out their bargain to sleep in the boat, if I wd at least excuse them from carrying up its luggage. When I found no one was willing to take the work, I ordered the boat discharged.

On Tuesday, on to Lambe, for dinner. The "Sabon" barely succeeded in passing us, at the place, it having followed us from Liverpool.
Crossed the river, to a large Fair town: pitched to them; also bought nganda seeds. - On to Franga: feared a coming storm; but, in my desire to buy fish (sênjêle fish), which I heard were for sale, in Azâzi's town, in the mouth of the out exit of the Lake, I ventured to go there just. Delayed, by the bargaining for fish, I was caught in the tornado, & crossed the river <sup>bank</sup> to Cransa, at its west; much to Mary's dread, and the thorough wetting of us all. Good quarters with us; but, we were uncomfortable, for want of dry bedding.
On the 18th, remained the whole day, at Orãnga, washing and drying clothes:— We had unexpectedly met Aziza and her husband Agandaga, at Lãmbã. She did not come to us at Orãnga. We saw Mewanyano, at Orãnga, and Mary was glad to meet her:— Aziza visited me, in the afternoon:— Writing up letters, and filling documents.

On Thursday, started late; did not stop at any villages, — ate in the forest, at a very good olako. While there, a French gun-boat passed up:— On to Igwewa village, but, Elder Ngyanga had gone, on the gun-boat ~~to~~, at the summons of the French, to see about some difficulty of one of his people with the Bakile:— At Elori, overtook the canoe of the <sup>Impongwe</sup> man Ogula, of James' family, who is trading in the Lake:— At Oriumbã, before 4 P.M. Aziza was then arrived just before us:— Well located, in Ambroman miss' house:— On Friday, writing up:— Closed my letter to Mrs Pratt, asking for orders of shoes for Mary, 1 pair each of shoes & gaiters No 7, & 1 pair each of No 9½.

Also 1 pair each of 9th & 10 gaiters for Iga. - Azija came, to tell me about her husband's unfaithfulness to her: - <sup>Elder</sup> Remontigo came, with some applicants for Class & Baptism: - my cook Azami's foot still sore, - he came to bring his wife to the class: - Plenty of pineapples to eat.

Saturday Dec. 21st } Waited Saty morning till Sabbath .. 22nd } 10. A.M., for Elder Remontigo Monday .. 23rd } to come to Session-Meeting: - Tuesday .. 24th } Meetings were rather hurried: -

After afternoon Preparatory Service, a storm was coming up, and Mary came in tears to me, alarmed at the fear ~~of~~ Jamie H., who was in another part of the town, would get wet: - Many cases for examination and discipline, in the evening; but, they had come too late: - The Bread for the Table came at noon, by Chitonome, from Sister Kaka, at Rangur.

On Sabbath 22nd the entire morning was dark and lowering, & but, so cloudy ~~so~~ I could not be sure the darkness was due to them or to the eclipse of the sun, due today.

[Journey] (Dec. 1889)

Monday 23rd. Rose early, but started late, being detained by Jamie H. Having a wordy discussion with Aziza, who had been talking against her: Crew pulled slowly: At the camp for eating, the cooking was done so slowly, ~~that~~ I got out of patience: Crew pulled well, in the afternoon; but, still we did not reach Kâigwe till after 5.30<sup>P.M.</sup> It was 7. P.M., when I finally reached the Hill-house.

Tuesday, went to the English & German Trading-houses, to look after Peter Bell's boxes, and to pay the month's wages of the crew: - waiting for the "Dunda" to come, & be ready for journey <sup>down the river</sup>, on next Saturday.

Wed. Dec. 25th Had a duck for Christmas dinner, but, in no other way, took notice of the day.

On Thursday, went with Mr. Gacon, in my boat, to all the 3 Trading Houses, taking a number of boxes of fixtures to the German house, <sup>for</sup> America and accounts for the year: - Many wanted to go with me, and came down as far as Andende, but, then feared the threatening clouds of sky, & went back to the Hill with Etinda. At the German House, it was finally decided the "Deulla" would go at 5. A. M. of Monday 30th. I felt at ease, to arrange for the Communion Service of next Sabbath. At Hall's, there was a crowd of Fan, who had been making disturbance on the premises. Four little puppy dogs there, which many would have been glad to see. A satisfactory day, & returned, in good time, for supper.

On Friday, began Session-Meeting; but, there were few applicants.

On Saturday, after Preparatory Service, of afternoon, there was a Congregational Meeting, and Agoro, of the 3rd church, who had brought his letter to the 1st church, was selected Elder; and, in the evening, he was ordained and installed.

On Sabbath, the usual Exercises, all of which were well conducted: 3 persons baptised.

At night, was quite sick with headache, & retired early, after gathering together - a few last things, for the journey :- Went to sleep, but was afraid to sleep soundly, lest I should over-sleep the time, for awaking for the journey. Woke at 2. A.M. of the 30th; dressed, - woke the crew, - woke Argentinis - began to load the boat; - hoped to have started at 3.30<sup>A.M.</sup> but was delayed, especially, at the last, for a lantern ~~for~~ Mr. Gacon could not find: Started at 4. A.M. Not very dark: but the circumstances sad for Sister, - her parting from Maimba and Agony's, & the Ogove. At the German house, by 5. A.M. No one apparently awake on the "Dorada", nor ashore; but, my coming around them; and, by 6. A.M. the steamer was off. It had a large number of native passengers; & a full load of its own produce, and of Sister's goods and effects: - All the way down river, in passing the villages, there were good-bye salutations, from the people ashore, to sister Bella: - A fine clear day, and rapid progress. About 8. P.M., anchored out of the cross-reef, ready sufficiently nice :- When anchor was taken up, and the steamer started across, it went safely, under the half-moon light; anchored near the German house:- Capt. Uzaraki, Mr. Kubitzy, and the ex-surgeon went ashore:- I laid down in the wheel-house, but did not disrobe.

On Tuesday Dec. 31, was up early :- The Capt. Uzaraki had returned late last night, to the "Dwella"; haste was late in leaving the dining-room, where she, Mary, Argentyn, & Iga slept:- Our boxes were sent ashore; and, after breakfast, the "Evangeline" took us ashore:- Mr. Knook welcomed us.

A French doctor, <sup>Ruhll?</sup> & a French sergeant, were at the German house; but, Mr. Kubitzy had asked the latter to leave, as his manners were offensive :- At noon, an incident of a little girl brought to the door unwillingly, as sent by her parents, at the desire of the sergeant's best: After dinner, he followed her to the French Post, - there attempted to have sexual connection with her, she screamed for help, - people broke into the room, and took her away. When Arzentynin told me of the facts, I told Mr. Knock ~~that~~ I would not eat at the first table, with the sergeant, but would come to the second table. Mr. Knock sent word to the sergeant not to come here for his meals, after ~~the~~ dinner. The sergeant was indignant at my refusal to eat with him, and told Knock, "if I was a younger man, he would challenge me to a duel!"

January 1st 1890. There was a heavy tempest last night, ~~and~~ <sup>blowing</sup> drove the Hausie's canoe ashore, and threatened to drag the "Duska's" anchors :- That sergeant of yesterday came to take away his clothing and effects.

Capt Uzanski, Mrs Kultz, & Mrs Decemir went hunting on the prairie

Thursday Jan'y 2nd } The hunters returned, about Friday " 3rd } 10. A.M. very tired, sleepy, and exhausted. They had shot a wild ox, of which they gave a hind-quarter to Mr. Knock. Hurrying off the last load for the

"Sualla", which went at 3 P.M. very heavily laden, & with some 50 passengers for the Roups-Francaise.

The doctor Reol(?) and ~~the~~ brutal sergeant, Reollet, with his 40 soldiers, went as passengers: - I paid Mr. Kuchtz $40., for our bill down, passage & profit.
He made a reduction, not charging for the children nor for Parita or his wife: - Just after the "Sualla" had started, it returned, and sent a note ashore, for some money Mr. Kuchtz had forgotten: - Felt a relief, in the departure of the 2 Frenchmen.
It was home-like with ourselves, Mr. Knock, & the ex-engineer of the "Sualla", Mr. Köhner.

On Friday, in the morning, Anzenbyam & some were ironing the clothing they had washed the day before.
I went with the 2 children toward the Pass, and allowed them to bathe there: - In the afternoon, Mr. Knock cut out his spine, & I undressed, and went in the water, to drag it. Worked hard, & bathed long & swam some; so that I was somewhat exhausted, in the evening.

Saturday Jan 7 4<sup>o</sup> } waiting for steamer; was Sabbath - " 5<sup>o</sup> } too tired for on Saturday, for having exercised too violently

on Friday: - On Sat'y afternoon, Mr. Kuok asked me to have religious services tomorrow: - Mr. Deerin singing with sister Bella's organ.

On Sabbath, went, with the family, to the Orange-village, a mile away, to preach. A pleasant walk along the beach, as the tide was out; but, the people of the village showed stolid indifference: - In the afternoon, about 3 o'clock, just as we were getting ready for meeting, in Mr. Kuok's public-room, a sea-turtle was brought for sale; ~~it~~ excited the curiosity of Mary & the natives. I preached from Luke, 13, 7, "Why cumbereth it the ground?" During the service, the "Jean-Lemie" arrived, from Nazareth Bay: - Took a little walk with Mary on the beach, at sun-set. Saw a shark: had seen one 2 days ago when I was allowing Mary to bathe.

Monday Jan'y 6th } Jamie H. & Jane washing on Tuesday " 7th } Monday, as usual: - Watching Wed'y " 8th } for steamers: - On Tuesday, A.M., a French man-of-war (the "Huron"?) towing a gun-boat; and, ~~at~~ afternoon, the new gun-boat and the old one ~~had~~ had been lying here, started for Lembarene. A fierce gale of wind came up, just after they had gotten safely across the Bay. Sat on the veranda, with Mary, and watched the waves piled up on the beach. - Mr. Kuroki by chance dived ashore. Felt anxious for safety of the "Dino", lest it should drag its anchor.

[Manji]

(Jan'y 1899)

On Wed'y afternoon, the "Jean Louis" started up for Lembarene; - Late in the afternoon, Mr.
 Berry(?) agent of Daumas & Cie, gave me a <sup>small</sup> ride, on the Bay, in his sail-boat.

Thursday Jan'y 4th, Early in the morning, the "Eloby" was seen coming in; went off, with Mr. Kuroki, & <sup>found</sup> <sup>that</sup> Commandant Poillete's wife was on board; - we going to attempt to go up the Ogova, & ~~at~~ the "Edward Bohlen", expected here, had passed on south; & the "Gertrude Wäinmann" was expected daily, from the north. In the uncertainty of any steamer, coming from south; ~~we~~ would stop here, I promised the Capt of the "Eloby" I would wait here for him, on his return from Lembarene 5 days hence.

Friday Jan'y 10th } At noon, an English Saturday " 11th } steamer was seen coming Sabbath " 12th } in; it came too near the Monday " 13th } sand-bank, - fired its gun:- Tuesday " 14th } moved off again, and soon anchored still too far out.

The customs boat, - Mr. Fusch & I, in the "Evangeline", & Mr. Seemann in his boat, all went off. It was the "Camerons", Capt. Lamy :- I was in a dilemma; I had promised Capt Ludje, of the "Elohi"; to wait for him; but Fischer had fallen sick, on Friday afternoon, and I decided to go by the "Camerons" :- At 9. P. M., the "Duala" was seen coming across the Bay. On returning from the ~~23rd Sat'y~~ "Camerons", in the afternoon, 23 of Fischer Bella's cases were sent off by Mr. Fusch to the "Camerons" :- On Saturday early, our baggage was sent off, by canoe, to the steamer; and, at 9. A. M., with our small party in the "Evan-geline", & accompanied by Mr.

Knoch, we went to the steamer :- Fischer letter :- I took a live sea turtle with me :-

[At Sea] (Jan'y 1890)

Argentyura remained at Manji, in order to go on south, to Letto Lamma:- Steamer started at 1. P. M.:- Many crying for Argentyura, saying she "felt lonely": she cried at frequent intervals, and then she and Iga fell asleep on a rug & pillow, on the deck:- I was not sea-sick at all:- The officer Igaire, the thief of Argentyura's goods:- the Frenchman Louis Dunch:- the conceited assistant of the English ~~London~~ Astronomical Expedition:- was disappointed ~~in~~ we did not enter the harbor ~~at~~ night:- Anchored.

On Sabbath the 12th anchored in the <sup>harbor</sup> ~~at~~ about 8. A. M.:- <sup>the Manji</sup> "The Nassau", just at the same time, anchored also, coming from Bevita, with the native elders:- Went ashore, in the "Evangeline", with the steamer's ~~two~~ boys; the Capt. said I must take my baggage, as he would leave at 3. P. M. I refused; and then he said he would send it in his own boat. I was very indignant at his trying to compelling me to work on Sabbath. Goods all landed, by noon, at the Coumissionary house; but, I did not have work done myself, though I had to stay there and keep account of what came:- gave the Kroomen lines, and they were very grateful:- In the afternoon, was the Communion, in the church:- Messrs Allegret & <sup>A. Pressit</sup> Messers had enjoyed their visit to Benita:- the "Cameons" went out, at about 5 P.M. On Monday, having sister Bella's cases & baggage examined, at the Custom, and carried up <sup>to</sup> the the iron-store:- Welcomes from the Benita elders:- Placed Iga in Mrs Sneed's care:- the tent I had bought was cut up & distributed & enjoyed.

On Tuesday the 14th, arranging papers, and re-reading the mail, which was awaiting me here on Sabbath:- as follows:- Of dates in ~~1890~~ Sept:- Marriage Reception of Miss Croft (Mrs Dr. Fadyen):- Mrs W. L. Nassau, - Sept-; Mrs Casman, Sept. 22nd:-

Of Oct:- Stay of Anzenbyum, returned Oct 9th:- Oct. 12th, Mrs Wells, - Oct. 12th, Brother Joseph:- Oct. 13th-15, Son Charles:- Oct. 14th, Mrs Good, - Oct. 22nd, James Casman, - Oct. 25th, Son Charles. Of Nov, - Nov 20th, James Casman:- Mrs a box of papers from William :- In the afternoon, came suddenly, the dead body of a Mr. Wesley, a clerk of N. & C., from Haugevage; came for burial. Funeral services in the church. a large number of traders at the burial :- Mary's boil on her finger painful :- At night, after evening Prayers, Presbytery meeting, at which a good amount of business was done. Licentiate Mbra had come, during the day, to settle his accounts, - and was very submissive to my rebukes, and accepted our own version of his accounts.

Wed'y Jan'y 15 <sup>c</sup>	} Before sun-down of Tuesday 14 <sup>c</sup> , the "Elohi" had come in, from Mavji :- And, since then, there have come in, from the south, the German "Professor", and from the north, the German "Gertrude Weirwan", - a French steamer, - and the "Kabinda". Also, the "Gertrude" went south on Wed'y (?) with Messrs Allegut & Teisens. I wrote to Augsburg by them, and sent a package of shoes for Mr. Kuch :- Began to held Praying meetings, on Tuesday night: - Most of the northern Elders left, on the "Professor", on Saturday evening: - Had quite a talk with Mr Truman, on Friday afternoon, about Mr. Readings doings: - On Sabbath, preached in English, and Mr. Truman in Inpongwe. Mr. T. scandalised the pulpit and the day, by a personal attack on Mr. Mia, during his sermon, in return for Mr. Mia's attack, last Sabbath, on Inpongwe sins.

Monday July 20: The "Faleba" came in: the "Heron" came in; a French sailing vessel came in: - Had a talk with Mr. Mia, about his curt and disrespectful letter: - In afternoon, Praying warned the native brethren, about personalities in the pulpit.

Tuesday July 21 } On Tuesday, the "Eboe" came in, Wednesday " 22 } from the north: at first, thought Thursday " 23 } it was Capt. Dand's boat: it was Capt. McKelway: - Talked with him, about possibly sister being a passenger into their home: - about possibly Anyentyer being a passenger with her, from Cape Lopez to Patti Casuma: - many and Mr. Preset were much noticed: - Two lay missionaries, Plymouth Bethune, going to the Kongo, Messrs Cole & Luff, and an engineer, Adamson, in charge of a steamer for the new Guinean "Balolo Mission", came ashore with me, and spent the day with us: -

I took Adamson a walk to the Plateau; and they returned to the "Eboe" after 5 o'clock tea.

On Wed'y, a Mpongwe woman, whom we had seen at Manji (Cape Lopez), and, who had come from Manji on the "Heron", on Monday, brought me a letter from Argentyni, dated the 17th-19th; good news from her: she ~~had~~ <sup>was</sup> evidently to leave for Sette Cauma, on the "Gentode Woerman", on the 20th: - <sup>[This word to be a mistake]</sup> The "Eboe" left, in the morning, for St Thome: - In the afternoon, I took a long walk, to the Trading-house, for several articles I wanted.

On Thursday, our Shi left, for Coico, in the Mission sail-boat: - Still writing up Preliminary documents.

Friday Jan'y 24 th	} On Friday A.M., went to the Plateau, with Mr. Preece , to get authority for the survey and marking of the premises of Argentyni .

was more successful, than at previous efforts, to get access to the officials: Bought some things, at Holt's: Got medicine for Mr. Gault, at the French doctor.

On Saturday, at 6. P. M., went down to see how Mr. Lety was, who has been sick for a week, and found he had died at 5. P. M.! Was very much distressed for I had not called earlier. Mary felt Mr. Lety's death.

On Sabbath morning, went to the German House, to see what the arrangements were: Funeral for 5. P. M.: Heard, on the way to church, morning the news of the death of Diagula, Mr. Ibia's second son, news of wh. had come last evening, by Petiga returning from Conaco, whither he had taken Mr. Ibia last Thursday: Preached in Npongare, in the morning: Distressed all day about Mr. Lety's death: Mr. Crossley, of N. & C. Mr. Le Fourné, the telegraph operator, a Reubine, of the Waiwain Farm, came to delay the funeral from 5, to 5½, for the coming of the Governor: Lieut. E. F. Donville, of the English Navy "Magpie", & Mr. F. W. J. King called, from the "Magpie": & invited us to visit their vessel. They remained to the funeral: Mary laid on the coffin a wreath of a solemn day:- This is a very sickly season

Monday, Jan'y 27<sup>c</sup>. Wrote a letter to son William's wife:- Stenciled Antyjuin's name, on the 2 boxes I had <sup>the carpenter</sup> Williams make last week for her:- A <sup>English</sup> sailor, who had just been discharged from the hospital, came to see the Mission grounds:- The company of French marines finished their target practice to-day:- Began Mission Meeting, in the evening.

Tuesday, Jan'y 28<sup>c</sup>. I was disappointed that the Surveyor did not come, from the Plateau, to mark out the premises of Argentynus's house:- Wrote a letter to son Charles:- Went, in the late afternoon with Mary, to get <sup>Iga</sup> ~~the~~ whom I had allowed, in the morning, to go visiting with Antyregule's mother in town:- Met Lieut Donville & M<sup>r</sup> Piney, of the British man-of-war, "Magpie", and they repeated their invitation to visit that vessel:- Continued the Mission Meeting, in the evening.

Wed'y Jan'y 29<sup>c</sup>. In the morning, took Iga as far as Antyregule's, and went on, with M<sup>r</sup> Prescott, to the Plateau, to get the Surveyor to fulfil his promise, to come and survey the premises for Argentynus:- Had to make quite a walk around the public buildings, before I could find the Surveyer. Surprised at his hesitation and even objection to come:—Saw a French steamer coming in: it was supposed to have mail on, for the British man-of-war "Magnie":—In the afternoon, went, with Garsita, and 2 of Mr. Gault's people, to cut the outline of Anjo-ntyuan's premises:—The intruders on those premises wanted to make some objection: Was my trial in the evening:—Mary had gone with me, to the cutting, but she returned to the house before me, very wet with perspiration:—In the evening, went with her, to bring Iga back:— on the way met Iga coming.

Thursday Jan'y 30. The 2 Surveyors came, and began to mark the ground, but they were not satisfied to work, till I had cleared the outline wider and straighter.
And they left, promising to come another day:—To-day, came in 2 vessels, the "Gertrude W. Deane", and a French vessel, and there went out 2, the "Magnie", and the "Gertrude W.":—Sent mail to Batanga

Friday Jan'y 30. The surveyor came again, completed his work, and the masons immediately followed, & began to set up the prepared cement stone pillars, in the five or six corners:- In the evening, as I was going out with the children to walk, a man Sori, whom I had known at Beuila, 25 years ago, as a Oupongwe trader, came to make a mild protest against the ground that was being enclosed for Argentynovie. But, at Mr. Freeman's, he saw ~~it~~ she was right.

Saturday Feb'y 1st gave Cassita and <sup>his wife</sup> Jane, each their pay in silver, for Jan'y :- Sent to Halls, and got 1/2 case (2 doz) of milk :- Wrote to Jerry Freeman:- The masons at work, with the boundary stones: Sent mail, for the French steamer: Told Mary the story of the "House the Jack Built", - & she only inquired, "Did the blood come out" (of the dog, when the Cow tessed him.) houses there were scattered irregularly:-

On Monday, rose feeling very stiff and heavy:- the masons finished putting the boundary stone, today:- In afternoon, I was trying to settle acct. with Mr. Gault, though I was feeling feverish, a chill came on, just before a heavy shower, & I went to bed shivering, and the chill did not leave me till late at night. Took calomel

On Tuesday, the medicine operated, ate nothing all day. Back still very tired and heavy; and pain in my eyes.

On Wed'y, still in bed; pain nearly gone, but leaving me very weak:- Had eaten nothing since Monday noon:-

On Thursday, rose very weak, but hungry. Felt ~~far~~ better, after dinner, and attempted to walk to the Plateau Garden, with Mr. Præzel & the 2 children. The florist was sick: and I did not get any plants:- For the first time, saw several fowls. Returned very weak and exhausted:- Had stopped, on the way, at the tailor's, to leave my measure with him:- A French mail-boat coming in.

gift of whdks for Mary: - On Friday, I was still weak, and unable to do any studying or writing or work: sister trying to interfere with my Talaguga arrangements, after her departure for America; and, she was vexed because I would not allow her; and, in her vexed nervous state, became sick.

Saturday the 8th: Still waiting anxiously for the delayed "Kisanga": - Sister Bella still sick, to-day: - Mr. Passet returned from Plateau, with news that the gov't. was ready to execute the deed, for August 11th's land, and that we should come with witnesses, on Monday 10th.

I informed Mr. Truman to be ready.

Sabbath Feb'y 9th: Was a cold storm, last night: a chilly day: - Sister Bella better: - I preached, in Supergwe: - Only few present at church: - Heard that the "Kisanga" was at Eloti: - On Monday Feb'y 10th: The "Marie Woodman" came in, from the north: thought, for a little while, of going with it to Manji: but delayed, as we heard certainly that the "Kisanga" was at Eloti: Arranging, with Mr Passet at 2nd awoke early, expecting to start at 7. A. M. but a mate came, from Mr Allan, delaying, because of some Custom-House matter, until 9 or 10 o'clock:- Started down, at 9. A. M., & was just in time. Bade Sister Bella good-bye, on the beach:- The "Falaba" started, as soon as we got on board, at 9.30:- Rough water, as the vessel got out to sea. By dinner time, Mary was asleep with nausea: she vomited, in the afternoon. I ate both meals: but, by tea-time, both the children were asleep, and they ate nothing. We all three went to bed, in Mr Allan's room, without undressing, & sleepy and uncomfortable were we: A rough night, at sea at anchor, not half-way to the mouth of the Ogave.

On Saty 19th, rough sea, and opposing wind: poor steering by unskilled Keoome:- The Captain Johnson sick, almost the whole journey:- He was very obliging, in giving <sup>Mary</sup> ~~me~~ <sup>fruit</sup> ~~meat~~ and cakes, whenever she wanted. Mary did not care for the bread Mr. Reed sent with us. I got and I ate ~~it~~. For did they care for our friends' sweet-cake, after the first day. I felt quite nauseated, but was able to eat. Entered the Ogove, about 3. P.M., having fortunately met the tide at its height, at the mouth. Had row, on the edge of a bank, just before entering the mouth. A French cutter was in the Bay. Anchored, at night, not far up the Ogove, - not having reached the mouth of Manji creek. Mosquitoes, at night, got into our mosquito-nets, and made many very restless. I undressed the children, but only partly undressed myself.

On the 15th, on to Angäla, and anchored, and the Captain went ashore, to try and buy food; but got nothing. - On to Fango, by 2. P.M., and anchored, and remained there the remainder of the day and night, waiting for the Akäure pilot. Washed the children ~~in~~ evening. At night, Iga fell out of bed as to many, but many mosquitoes. Made inquiries, about Tuburu, the wife of Rebutka, a relation <sup>licentiate</sup> of <sup>the</sup> <sup>tribe</sup>.

had removed to Oriwagambé's old town further up the river.

On the 17th (Monday) on our way. All felt better. My constant use of banana helped to make my bowels laxative. Saw Hippo potami very near the steamer. Passed Mboré's place, and he recognized us.
Anchored for the night, just beyond

On the 18th, my wife was not well. There has been better steering, since the Nkâmi pilot came on board; - In the afternoon, the "Elohi" passed us, and anchored a half hour before us, at Orângá: Simbwe, and Etenda came off, to see us: - In passing Igeja, in the noon, the Captain had whistled and slowed, and Mbirigiro had come off, and joined me. I took also little Abemba. Saw Mãmabá, for a few moments.

On the 19th, on our way; Etenda & his wife, and Ambala, and Orembozani, joined us, just in time, in the morning.
Recognised by people, as we passed lower on the way. At Wombatiya, Rumbendambya and others came alongside, and said they would follow me, in 2 days. Reached Agawa Trading-House, at exactly 4 P.M.: but, it was 4.30 before the vessel was roped ashore, and Tubala could jump ashore, to run around the island, and call the <sup>Mission</sup> boat. I was much disappointed as it was not already waiting there for me, as Mr. Allegret had been there all day, and had heard from the "Elobs.", that I was coming.

At 5.30. M. A. and the boat came, and with a portion of our things, we came to Andevote, by 7. P.M. Had a head-ache. Rain was beginning to fall. Mr. Carmein gave me boys to help, and everything was carried up <sup>to the Hill-house</sup> at once: - The Fan on the Hill brought us water; Etanda made tea; Jane, <sup>wife of Gasita</sup> warmed water for Prancy's bath. We had supper, but, I ate sweet grapes, which did not agree with me. Went to bed with a bad headache.

On the 20th Sunday, Mr. Leage the remainder of our boxes :- I had a bad headache all day; Mr Gacon came, to call on me; he had a bad toothache :- In the afternoon, Mr Tevies and Garmier and Leverage came to call on me :- Expected the "Julala" to go today, but it did not, as it is waiting for the "Hambra" to come down river.

On <sup>Friday</sup> the 21st, Told <sup>candidate</sup> Ogula my arrangements for him :- Went to Ambende, and put the boat in the water, for the journey of <sup>next</sup> 4 days. Mr. Gacon decided to go to Gabon, to have his teeth-roots extracted :- Feel better of the headache.

Saturday, Feb'y 22 nd	} Have made no entries in these days :- Yongwe, Ogula, and Ranyiko, came to see me, about their employment as Bible-Readers; several times during the preceding days, and on

[Kangwe] (February 1890)

The afternoon told me a falsehood. She felt my rebuke very much, and cried bitterly. I was distressed for the lonely little girl. In the evening, at 5 P.M., came a note from Mr. Deakin, saying <sup>that</sup> the "Oka" would take me up, next day, if I was there at 8. P.M.:- told the young men, and they all promised to be up early next day:- After the children were asleep <sup>at night</sup> gathered my goods & food, for the journey: went to bed <sup>very</sup> late.

Awoke at 1. A.M. of Monday 24, being anxious to be up early. Dozed again, till 3. A.M. Rose, dressed: called the men:- sent down boxes: <sup>to Anderson</sup> At 5 A.M., woke May, - ate at 5.30. - and left the house at 5.45. Sent May, Igo, & June on ahead, with some food and the bundles:- Was troubled with diarrhoea, 4 movements between 3. A.M. and 6. A.M.:- The crew of 8 pulled well, and we were at Sonenga by 7.30. Had to wait there an hour, - started. The "Palmer" <sup>was</sup> 10 miles ahead of us, and the "Duelia" <sup>was</sup> behind us, the "Brada" has passed us, - we overtook & passed the "Galera", opposite Island Factory; and, during the day, passed and were passed several times: The heavy surfboat parted its tow-line, at Sauridita, and delayed us: Passed Agayjita about 6 P.M.: Just after dusk, ran aground, below Aguilata, - some time in getting off, and then anchored, for the night: I slept in the house of the boats & team, with two children.

On the 25th Tuesday on to Oyumbis, and was delayed here getting word: Bought incanatus meat, on to Talagaza, by 3 P.M., was suffering with diarrhoea & was almost dying.

A half-hour after all goods were safely landed, a tornado came up: - The little "De Brazza" passed up: I had to get to our Talagaza home: Every one glad. I immediately put all of her play things into Sister & Bella's vacant room. Miss Mayo & Tessie had been here, and had taken away the furniture they had bought.

On Wed. 26th, sent <sup>Elder</sup> Abumba, & 6 others, to Ajoune, for the thatch, I had trusted there, and to try to get back the little canoe of Mary, which Ampamba had lost: Tried to put away journey things; but, my boxes troubled me much: Had washing, of my own things, little Abumba; and of Mary's, by Jones: <sup>Elder</sup> Abumba returned early, - while I was buying igieona, palm oil & plantain of a Calusa canoe: Angaka also came, with food to sell, and stayed all night.

On Thursday 27th, sent Londo, and 4 others, to get the remainder of the thatch, and the canoe also: Abumba spent several boxes, 2 boxes of chains, <sup>for canoes</sup> - cart of lanterns, - box of candy, - put a logpole in the kitchen-axe, - and fastened one of the chain and <sup>E</sup>filistens on the bow of the new freight canoe: Mary glad for the return of her canoe, and for the candy with-tops: A tornado wind, at 5 P.M., but, we, Londo had stowed successful: Had seen enjoying na a of what <sup>I brought</sup> at Ojeantob's, to Abumba: Had to rebuke and punish Iza today, she took many into so much mischief, Anguei, somewhat lonely, and a little sad to night, all alone in this house: I am sorry that Santa Bella's life & mine were so unhappy; ~~but~~ <sup>but</sup> I feel it better, as an alternative, to be alone: The work of the house will go on better, when Angentywe returns.

February 28th Friday. Abumba repairing tools, cutting chains into lengths, for fastening on the 3 small canoes: - The other 6 men scattered, at various jobs: Counted up the acct. to M. Londo and Abumba had of the goods I had left with them, and found they had been economical.

Arranging my papers, and photos.
 Emptying some of the boxes I had brought with me from Kängwe.

In the afternoon, paid all the employes, the 4 who had kept the premises, while I was away, had 3 months' wages due them, - and <sup>they</sup> bought expensive things.

At Talagaya (1 February 1890)

In the evening, Angéla returned, from up river, on his way down; and, Agonjo came from his post, to get his 2 months wages due: - I had just returned at conducting evening prayers, as I remain with Man, for her last and prayer and singing to sleep. Everything is going on amicably, - and I feel well: but, a little lonely, when I come to sit down by myself, in the evening.

Saturday March 1st: - Man rose late: - Abamba off, on usual Sat<sup>y</sup> village visiting: - The other men, at various jobs: - till at the entering of acct., and a couple papers. Angéla left, for down river, to reach Kängue to night: - Paid Agonjo and his people; and then left, early in the afternoon: - A hot afternoon: - Just about 5 P.M., Man and Igo came, to inquire the time of the clock, from Reuben dambya, who I regarded as a disrespectful suggestion, <sup>on his part</sup> but I was neglecting to ring the bell. & c., when I asked him about it, he tried to deny and suppress the fact: - which made me very angry: - A word

Sabbath, March 2<sup>d</sup>, Sabbath was a quiet Monday " 3<sup>d</sup> } pleasant day: - Four couples of friends, in all probably 30 people, came to church: Bilagā was among them; the service after histo.
Bella: - Pāwa taught in Sab. Sch., in afternoon: Monthly Concert, about International Movement for the Suppression of African <sup>Slave</sup> Slavery: - Sab. eve. late reading: - On Monday, Ma-rose very late, and had to eat her breakfast alone: She wished her extra dolls, and I allowed her to have them, on the condition that they were not to be taken from the parlor.
Afterwards, at Iga's solicitation, she disobeyed me, and took them in the play room, so I had to take her hands, as per contract: and sent Iga away from her, and would not let her play with her the rest of the day: - At noon, Mrs. Reddow and her husband, from Ajōli, came to visit me: While they were here, the "Ovies" passed up: - Mary was disobedient again.

taking one of her dolls out into the kitchen. For this, I took her dolls, and locked them away from her. I am distressed what to do, a bit too much or too little discipline. And Iga is a disturber to me: I pity the hotel chief, - but she certainly is a cause of mis-leading man.

Tuesday March 4th. The men at various jobs:-

Wando & Garsita in the forest, after a ridge pole; Abumba planing door-frames, in the carpenter-shop; and others in the gardens:-

Wrote a letter to Mr. Gault, - to Mr. Butler, and to Sister Bella:- Abasa playing nipa, in the yard, and under the house! Just after noon, came the "Gambria", with Mr. Smith and my barrel of coal-oil, and 5

Bags of Rice! He asked for Baking Powder, and a young cheap-quona tree. I happened to have a supply of the Powder, - but a little tree, <sup>which</sup> I had been keeping for him, I discovered had been rooted up only ~~the~~ yesterday when I was on a visit to the Hill, to see Pawa! A tornado came up at and Mary, this evening, remarked that herself had been "a good girl" to day.

Tuesday March 5: Immediately after prayers, took up a thorny cherry-guava tree, for its fruits, and sent 2 men in a canoe, to the carrying of the "Cumbria": - Abamba off, on the usual weekly itineration to A. ...
Began to write a letter to Mrs Robinson, of Trebald; and was surprised to find some lice in Mary's head; and, on inquiring, found that Iga's head had lice, where do the Mary had gotten here; Had Iga's hair cut, washed, (sleeping together on the "Cumbria") and anointed with mercurial ointment.
Carefully searched Mary's head, washed it thoroughly. At noon, we all enjoyed a roast fowl. But, after dinner, Iga & Indigiro got into a quarrel, and Iga had a cry.
Also, I had to rebuke her, for breaking a chain of Mary's. I do not know what to do with Iga! Think of leaving her with her uncle, at Njonne, till her mother comes: - The children were playing nicely, in the afternoon: -

Antyuna. I was annoyed that they had both sent together, as I had expressly told them not to, and was vexed, at the trouble Abamba had brought, in not receiving their plantains, when they had sent them ~~at~~ before I returned from Gabon:- These little annoyances trouble me more than they ought.
 But most, am I anxious about her, - I can take care of her health, & food, & her dress, and the care of her hair is new, and, to keep her from the nation lice, the assistant, Jaws, is not as careful or skilful as Jamie N: is, do I feel well. I am still bilious, and my bowels not right.

Thursday March 6: Dusk in morning. The all rose late: Had some headache all day:
 The men with various jobs - mending canoes, cutting away rotten part, - Jaws made many a little patch: - wrote letter to brother William - and to Mrs R. J. Wright <sup>(of Jacomy)</sup> N: He after noon, hauled up the new freight canoe, to its place in the boat-house: Had many hair examined again, to day: Biligã came, to see Mary, and played with her while Both the children happy and well behaved, to day: - The day was chilly all day, and damp.

Friday, March 7th } did not enter, on Friday to Saturday .. 8th } for, I was sick: A delightful weather in morning: - we various jobs: - By noon, I felt feverish: had begun a letter to Dr. West, in the evening. The weather became hot, in afternoon. I was feverish all afternoon: pains over my whole body: - At night, had Stone get a pan of hot water in the bed, he worked my back, & rubbed me with camphor: I felt very weak and depressed.

Today, Sat. 7th, was quite weak in morning; but, free from pain. Made list of clothing; for <sup>for journey</sup> next week and sat, while Jane collected the articles, as I read the list: In afternoon, felt stronger, and packed Mary's and most of my trunks: A beautiful day.

Sabbath March 9th Monday " 10th Tuesday " 11th Wed. " 12th

There was a good assemblage of Fañ, on Sabbath. On Monday morning, promptly buying Moutkâmi's plantain and iguma and oil, as he was going on to Orange, to sell his canoe. Did not buy Dupond's plantain, because he lied about the ownership of an ipè skûr: - Giving food to Londo, for my month's absence, - and packing up and closing the house. At 9. A.M., began to load: at 10., sent the canoe to sea: at 11., ate our food: and, at 12., started. Abumba had gone before, in the canoe. Wind, showery day. Canoe pulled well. Stopped at Njêntulâ's, to tell him about thatch & bauls, to be gotten ready for me when I return. Stopped at Antyânâ's, <sup>to</sup> leave Iga with him. Near Mogo, met with rain. We were dry in the house, <sup>cover</sup> of the boat, but the canoe & boxes got wet. At Agonjâ's, by 4.30 P.M. Abumba was there; he had had difficulty with the overloaded canoe. Very rainy night. My net so broken that Agonjâ loaned me his, as the mosquitoes were numerous. On Tuesday, at 8 A.M. started again. Crew pulled vigorously until late in the ulako, a short distance below the Island-Factory. Reached Andeville, at 4 P.M. Left almost all the boxes and baggage, at Andeville baggage-room. On the Hill, in the house alone with Mary. At Andeville, there was only Mr. Teissier. Mr. Allegre & ~~others~~ having gone, on an excursion to Lake Azings, with Mr. Gatzengel; and Mr. Facon not having yet returned from Galton: the "Falaba" was daily expected. Argentyurova was not yet arrived; I had had a little hope, on the way, when I met the "Sualla", as I was coming down river, that she might have arrived from Manji. <sup>(Cape Lopez)</sup> On Wednesday, went to Andeville, to get a few things from my boxes. Mr. Teissier loaned me his mosquito net. Finished a letter to Dr. Norton; and wrote one to Argentyurova, on the chance of her being at Manji, whether the mail was to go ~~at~~ next day. In the evening, rebuked several of the crew, for disrespect and disobedience.

Thursday (March 15th). Started the crew, from the Hill, at 6 A.M., with what little luggage there was, to load up the boat. - Followed, at 7.15.

Found Aupamba had loaded up tolerably well.

Started exactly at 8. A.M. Mr. Teisener advised me to go up, <sup>to</sup> the Island, if possibly I might meet the "Falaba", and if possibly Anjentyevä would be on board:

but, I risked missing her, and chose the quicker way down river. Can I say very well. A few miles down, met Rosatanga and Ombago coming, from Igeuja to their work with Mr. Allegat. Sent, by Rosatanga, the key of the Hill-house, which I had forgotten to have with Mr. Teisener. Reached Aveyä, at 10.30. A.M., to eat. Had forgotten to bring a box of soap, <sup>(needed for purchases)</sup> and sent Kato to Yungu's, to ask him to send his boys up to Kängwe for it, & to delay his coming to Igeuja one day, so ~~so~~ he and the boys, with the soap, could follow me on Friday.

Allowed Jane to go across to Ombango, to see her mother; and went on to Vimbicasso with his wife, who had come to meet him at Avey's, did not go ashore, as the air was hot; sat in the shade of the house, <sup>cover</sup> of the boat: - Kase came from Yorgue's, and I gave him the letter to Mr. Teissier, and borrowed a small canoe of Avey, for him to go to Kangwe in: - Crossed the river, to Vimbicasso - waited there <sup>hour</sup>  $\frac{1}{4}$  for the rest of the crew, and, at 1 P.M., pulled on down river. Canoe pulled well; and, at a  $\frac{1}{4}$  before 5 P.M., reached Igeya. <sup>Elder</sup> Word had finished the new house I had authorized him, three months ago, to build: it was small, but cheap, convenient, and had a good view of the river. Got every thing well stowed away before dark. At 5.30 P.M., observed a steamer coming; thought it was the "Gabon". It anchored, near the town, at 6.30, and I pulled off to it, hoping Ayeatyumi might be on it. It was a French gun-boat: the captain said the "Ella Woinman" had come, from the South, for a woman had banded from it, and was at Mr. Kooch's, waiting for passage to Lumbane, was rejoiced at the information, as I assume <sup>that</sup> the woman <sup>is</sup> Aujintjani; and, as the "Ovis" is at Manji <sup>(Cape Lopez)</sup>, she may be expected, the French Captain said, in 5 days. Returned to supper, & evening-prayers. Many then was sleepy, & was nicely put to bed. The mosquitos not very troublesome. Päwa quite attentive to Mary. Many warm salutations and welcomes. In Abumba's village, news had been brought, to drink off a mourning, & there was loud singing and quarrelling, until after midnight.

Friday, March 14th. Arranging the rooms, and receiving visitors. Drying the coverings of the Communion plate &c, wh. had become wet and mildewed, by the leaking of a bottle of wine, wh. had been left in the box:— Receiving Mr. C. gifts for the Church:— Teaching, and leaving members of the class read:— In the late afternoon, about 5 1/2 P.M., while anxious for the arrival of Younger, under a threatening storm, he arrived with Koen and the box of soap, and fresh bread, for the Communion.

Had held a <sup>h</sup>rd session-meeting, in afternoon.
Held another, in the evening: was annoyed by the young men persisting in hanging about the church door, during the examination.

Sat'y March 15: At 9. A.M., the "Duala" passed down: this makes me think <sup>(Cape Lopez)</sup> if Anyentyunã is at Manji, she will have chance of coming not only by "Oiro" but by "Duala" also.

Sabbath March 16: A clear bright day: no disturbance, from rain, nor from noise in the village, nor from passing steamers.
Thought my thoughts were sometimes distracted by the expectation of the coming of the "Oiro", which is probably Anyentyunã: Five persons, <sup>baptized</sup> 3 young men, & two women. And, in the afternoon, 2 infants: son of mãmã, and daughter of Anyãhã of "Limpool". Rain, at night.

Monday, March, 17 } Rain, morning of the 17: buying Angika and his company started for <sup>their</sup> Limpol, <sup>Yongwe</sup> waited till noon, and then he started up river, for the Lakes. Abumba and his company started up river, for Talaguga. After dinner, as the sky seemed cleared, started at 12.30 P.M. At Olambaga, stopped for a few minutes, to see a page. A slight rain beginning, which increased to a heavy down pour, wh. wet every exposed thing in the boat. The rain checked a little at "Limpol", as we landed. Discharged every thing. The town wet, & fire-places troublesome. Did not enjoy my stay at the town.

On Tuesday, rose early, to look out for the "Orino". Started late: the day cleared finely. The crew pulled well. Ate, in the forest, beyond Lámbe village. On to Orange, by 3. P.M. Doubled about discharging the boat. At 4.30., the "Orino" came in sight; went off in the boat, and found Augentjwé there! Also, Mr. Allan, Mr. Kutz (who had left the "Eloj" agoind below Angika,) and a Mr. Schulte. Mary was very glad at the arrival of her guests.

Putting our boxes to rights, for, rain was seen coming. Augustyn's story of her journey. Set up late, at night listening to her story. Heavy rain. Rebated Edouiza, for trying to Compel Edouiza to marry against her will.

On Wed. 19, started late. Stopped, for dinner, in the forest, beyond and opposite to Amingoaress. The "Dualla" passed up, while in the forest, the "Elob" passed up. Had eaten late. Started again, at 2.30. P. M. On the way, one of the rudder-pieces came out. Had to use a paddle for a rudder. Signs of a storm: Thunder, lightning, wind, & rain following us. Was afraid the wind would drift us: crew putted very well. Rain before us too. But, by a great Providence, we kept between the two rains, - the wind died down, & we reached Ambouma's, without any rain, being wet at all. And all the signs of storm passed away, without any rain falling at Wambalija.

Thursday March 20 } On Thursday, arranging our Waiting for applicants, for baptism, to come for instruction, in reading and Catechism. <sup>my former cook</sup> On Friday, Elder Remontigo came to see me, with Agān, whose foot was now well, and who was ready to return to his work, in the Talaguga Kitchen. Session met, in the afternoon. A storm of wind and rain, came up. Had mended the rudder-pieces of the boat, in the morning. Arranged with Ambomani, <sup>evangelist</sup> for the building of a house, for Ogula, who is to come here, to teach & exhort. Cold rain, at night.

subendawby's little bitimah, to assist Jane H., at Talageya. Stopped late to eat, in the forest, and did not reach Kängwe old landing, till after 5 P.M. Mr. Allegret & Serge & the school boys & lantern awaited us; and a portion of the goods <sup>were</sup> carried ~~to~~ up the hill.
With the rest, went on to Andinde, by 9.30, & at the hill-house by 10 P.M. Sat up late reading mail ~~to~~ had come by "Falala".

On Tuesday, went with Jane H. & Mary, in the boat, to Inanga, <sup>at</sup> Mr. Holt's, to get her boxes and my skins of animals. <sup>for the children</sup> Back to Mr.
Smith (H. & C), & got some things for the boys.

Went to Waimani, to see if the little dog some acct. signs of a storm, about 5. P. M., - but none came. A remarkable conversation with Augentywe in the evening.

On Thursday, writing letters; wrote to Mr Gault, a note to Editor of the "Independent"; - and, in the afternoon, a long letter to brother William, about the skins from Fette Camma.

Friday March 28th } Holding Session - Meetings :- boat, for me. - Arrangements with the Scripture-Readers: Myura was not satisfactory.

People beginning to come in from distant places. On Saty, still at Session-

On Tuesday, started my people all down to Andinde, some with Anzenbyuni ~~the~~ and the house-boys. Went on ahead myself, to hasten the loading of the boat, which had not even been begun, when I reached Andinde. Finally, got off at 8. A.M., with 8 paddles. The boat crowded with people and baggage.

... Stopped for dinner at the most in a point where, years ago, I always stopped, but lately had not, because of Mr.
Fair's land near it, who is now moved away.

At 5:30<sup>P.M.</sup> Stopped at the Island-Factory, at the invitation of Mr. Bates, who was there taking the place of Mr. Wheeler: felt quite at home there: - Intensions that the to be removed. Wished to be off, by 6. A.M. of Wed'g, but was delayed, by Mr. Bates morning-tea till 7. A.M. Heavy water all day, on the Fair side of the river.

Stopped at 11. A.M. in a good ulako.
Enjoyed the dinner. In the afternoon, a blow of wind and rain: delayed the voyage. After the wind calmed, crossed the river, but did not reach the Sawitita side till another rain came; it ceased a little. In passing Sawitita, a German trader politely asked me to stop for the night. Went on to Subsoni & landed in a third rain. The Pruzger trader <sup>(Holt)</sup> we occupied 2 rooms, and had just set down for supper, when the "Oka" came to anchor, and Mr. Harrington himself landed with his goods, to begin to occupy his house. I felt annoyed, & being found there in occupancy. The night was damp, and ground muddy. Left our boxes out in the boat in the morning, rather than have the trouble of unloading and re-loading.

On Thursday, we left before daylight, but was delayed by the "Oka's" clock, and did not get away, till after 7. A. M. Paused Okendois, before eating time, - landed Adzi there, and took <sup>Miss</sup> Ajija, who wanted to go with me.
She dined late, in the forest below Ompom-Iusa. Broke the bowl of one did not go ashore, but hid in the cover <sup>over</sup> the <sup>side</sup> of the boat.

The 4 who slept in the boat, occupied, at night, the deserted trading-house of Atyimus Samic. Inagawaga, the ~~man~~, my attendant. Held religious services, and retired early.

Just before reaching there, had met a canoe with Mrs. Beddow, Mrs. Lockshut, & a Frenchman, who said "one of my people at Salaguga was very sick. Was anxious to get on, I ga glad to see her mother."

My clock deceived me: we started late, and ~~did~~ did not reach Salaguga, till 7 P.M. The last mile, the 8 ~~boys~~ <sup>crew</sup> put on a spout, with paddles, and the boat flew ever through swift water. Many ~~rooms~~, on the veranda, in the bright full-moon light. On the way, 2 miles down, had seen the moon rise over Salaguga mountain: had never happened to come here, at this time of night, in the stage of the moon. It was very pretty sight. It was <sup>Elder</sup> ~~a~~ Atjornie who was sick.

On ~~Sabbath~~ Saturday, putting things away: buying from the Igenja and "Liverpool" afternoon, a rain storm. At night, the "Oka" passed up, in the charter of H. & C.

On Sabbath morning, the "Oka" passed by.

In the afternoon, we amayed ~~to~~ so were away from Sab. Sch. And, at evening service, so few of my people could tell me a thing of the story of Creation, on which I had preached, in the morning. Went to bed quite-depressed.

On Monday morning, we amayed and prepared for the Igenja canoe, instead of getting away promptly, with the sick <sup>Elder</sup> Abumba, were delaying to sell some things with the fan. Remando could find no room, in either the Igenja or "Liverpool" canoe, and site of the first old hut of March 1882.

In the afternoon, drying the Cape ropes fish, and planting the trees and plants sent <sup>to me</sup> from the Gabon Botanical Garden. At night, wrote up this diary; the review makes me feel what a with the river in flood, - boat crowded with goods & people, - and rainy weather.

But, we are glad to be at our home, and passed up river, on a visit to Asany, to day.

Tuesday April 16th } Londo and Reubendauga Thursday " 17th } sick, on Wedy; - In the afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a canoe came from Ongân, with plantains to sell; and also bringing Pâpâ, wife of Antyuna Harrington, on a visit to Auyentywâ. The crew remained all night, as the sky was threatening. Rain fell at night.

On the 17th, writing a letter to Mrs Williams in Detroit. (Yesterday, I had finished one to Rev. Gillespie.) Every day, I am planting, a few at a time, the exotic trees I received from the Galson Botanical Garden. Planted a baobab to-day.

Friday April 18th; Raining in the morning; but, went with Mary, to the new ~~house~~ building, to direct the workman; - "Puck", in his play, bit Mary on the finger; - Auyentywâ with house-cleaning; - Wrote letter to Cousin Hamill Davis; - Did not feel well, - felt bilious; and was annoyed, in the afternoon, by Etenda interfering with the ~~work~~ work.

[Talaguzza] (April 1890)

Sat. April 19th } At the new thatch-house, work Sabbath " 20th } going on with:- Angentyuni & her sister, Pāpā, walking over the Hill, and around the premises. Finished putting up the ridge-pole of the new house.

On Sabbath, a quiet pleasant day; but few Fair present; while we were at Sab. Sch., a canoe from Asange, passed down, and then ashore a letter in a bottle, shouting out some news; and shortly afterwards, another canoe passed up for Asange.

A storm was gathering, at 5. P. M.; and the rain began about 7. P. M.

Monday April 21st } On Monday, sent the new Tuesday " 22nd } freight canoe & 4 crew, to carry Pāpā back, to her husband's house, with presents and good will of all.

At noon, I felt feverish, and laid down all afternoon; chill continued all night.

The fever was gone on Tuesday; but, I did not arise from bed, till evening, was very weak all day. Did not attempt any work. Late in the afternoon, came a cold wind, & cold rain at night.

April 23<sup>d</sup> } On Wed. I was well again, and Thursday " 24<sup>d</sup> } out superintending business.

Plantains are again on hand, some 2 doz having come, from Ayika, by Ageli-pani, who is working for him: - Vantye's faults are becoming too intolerable, her falsehood, - idleness, filthiness, &c, compel me to dismiss her: On Thursday, finishing letters: did not feel as well as yesterday: Endondo disobedient: In evening, at 5 1/2 o'clock, the "Oka" slowly passed, having Messrs Allegret, Teissier, & Tesage, and the goods of the former two, for their inland journey: After evening services, gave the employees a long talk, of their neglect of duty, and announced the dismissal of Vantye, and of Oremlongani, who had opened a letter addressed to me, which was sent ashore from the "Oka".

Friday April 25<sup>d</sup>. By 6.30 A.M., the little canoe, with 2 crew, was started down river, taking away Vantye & Oremlongani: - With the new freight-canoe, and a crew of 7, Mr. May, Augustyne, & I, proceeded to Angi, to good bye to Messrs Allegret & Trissere: Stopped, in the forest, for lunch: some Fair women bringing our rice just as we were finishing lunch: Had met the "Ka", on its way down river: - At Kfoti Post: Messrs B. & P. & Leage; Chiefs Duval & Gazengel, & Commandant, & Lieut. of the "Baillie": A young bra carter in a cage: At Halls, getting food for the employees; at Hutton & Corkens: Back to the house, 5. P. M.: A pleasant day.

Sat. 7 April 26<sup>c</sup> } A messenger, from Chief Du-Sabbath " 27<sup>c</sup> } val, of day, came for Monday " 28<sup>c</sup> } a loan of milk and axes:

Had various amusements, during the day, - Londs disobedient at the home-buildings Mary disobedient, in the afternoon: - In the morning, had looked over Mary's mother's relics of jealousy &c.: - On Sabbath, at morning prayers, the "Baillie" passed down, & did stop here, as the Commandant had intimated he would, for inspection of the premises. I was glad our Sabbath was quiet: - But, there were no Fair or other strangers at Church: A pleasant day: - Some rain, at noon, came too late for church; among them, a former employe, Inana, from near Aguilaba.

On Monday, at various jobs. Began the painting of the boat: - The river falling: - There has been no thunder for a week; and very little rain: - Saw with a great deal of ijwua and a quantity of plantain, from Inenga: News of the death of a relative of Etanda, Onigins: - Okando came, in the evening, with his crew of two, and 3 Tan, - Adja, <sup>2</sup> ngwa, returning, & a new one, a young man, Ngie, from Akuris village, who wants to have work, & who also professes to be an insewa.

Tuesday (April 29th) } On the 29th, about 9. A. M., Wed. " 30th } came a large canoe, from Arange, with government crew, bringing Mr. Leage, who came to ask me for a canoe & crew to Kangwe. He had not gone down on the "Baulie", on Sabbath, - saying "It was better not to travel on the Sabbath (but I did) at his persuasion in the evening."

wanted to visit longer, with his French friends). Made him as comfortable as my house & food, & he, could display, & gave up to him time, I had expected to have used in arranging Mary's clothes. In the afternoon, the sun was very warm: - Paid the wages of Okendo & his crew; and also of Njega, whose disease has so increased. ~~It~~ I was quite willing he should go: - Walked with Mr. Seage over the premises.

In the 30th, was up early, - paid the wages of 4 of the crew of 6, who were to take Mr. Seage to Kängwe: both they and he were late, and did not get off till 7 A.M.

Small company left. Adzä took Njega's work, and Njega temporarily taking Njega's place: - The Study being cleared up; had not been thoroughly cleared, for a year: many anxious to assist at the floor-sweeping, but just missed it, by having a very slow time at their lesson: - Paid the rest of the household men's month's wages.

Thursday May 1st. Began to copy the minutes of Pulyty, to send to Squod. The parla being cleaned, & I was happy in being allowed to help scrub the floor. - Early in the afternoon, <sup>(from taking Nantye's)</sup> Rembandambya & Ampamba, returned, & Odinbasuk, with them. I had not expected them till tomorrow. - Etanda careless about the lamp-cleaning; & when I rebuked him for breaking a chimney, he came in the evening, to vex about it, & to claim that he should be relieved of that work: was much disappointed & he behaved so disrespectfully: Sat up very late, correcting inaccuracies in my "Stay of Anyentyuw".

Friday ~~April~~ May 2nd. Bilaga made a visit, in the morning, & stayed to help in ~~the~~ digging up the pea-nut garden, which was quite a play for me and the household servants: they were at it, with Anyentyuw, all the morning: Still at the copying of the P. i. t. Pulyty: - A chill ~~had~~ wind & rain, in the afternoon: Had to sit ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> bed, for comfort, by tying up her mouth, & sitting her down <sup>by herself</sup>, for an hour: sitting very unworthy and this (Monday) evening, Anpamba & Odawbento were persuaded by asking for baptism; - the latter is so lazy and indifferant! - Etanda denied having stolen Kungas yesterday. said he had taken only tea.

Tuesday May 6th. Rose late, the clock being late: - The "Falaba", which went up yesterday, came down this morning at Gaboon

Wrote a letter to Mr. Campbell: - A chilly day: - Mary enjoying her Toboggan slide with Iga: - Early in the afternoon, I and returned with the crew of the "Agoujo"; and a mail; & 2 monkeys from Mr. Lesage, for mail: - The mail was Jan'y 23rd 27th, from Wednesday May 7th. Many jobs :- Munkāni on the stem-part of the boat :- Lando replacing a support of the bridge :- Re-reading the mail of yesterday. Amazed at the amount of work that is marked out for me, by the letter of Dr. Pepper, asking for zoological collections :- Sharpening hatchets and cutlery on journey to Njōmū swamp, to cut <sup>bamboo</sup> ~~hatchets~~ tomorrow :- In giving out fish, at 5 P.M. found some had been stolen & suspect, Etānda or Ngāwe :- The "Duroka" passed, whistled, to let off ~~the~~ 2 letters from W.

Hacon, & a missing one of the several had written to Argentyna, while she was at Lette Cauma, but wh. she had no mind.

Thursday May 8th } did not feel well: could not Friday " 9th } fix thought for collecting the various articles necessary, for the journey, and dreaded the journey itself; but started at 8.30. A.M., with 2 canoes, & 11 crew, & to Sika, where also the "Duma" son came, on its way down: - Went immediately into the forest, with 9 people, while Nubigino & Omusango remained to cook <sup>at Antyuni</sup>. Lost my way, & did not find the exact spot of the <sup>huts</sup> <sup>where in the forest</sup> I wanted. Left the men to their eating, and went back to town; lost my way <sup>again</sup> & emerged below Sika. Asked Sika to show me the proper way back to the iwala: he went with me, <sup>I started the men at work</sup> & I again returned to Antyuni.

Had to change my wet clothes: - After dinner, went with the 2 <sup>boys</sup> <sup>to</sup> iwala: sent Omu-sango back, with a note to Antyuni to come with the children, as the bushes were deep. Nubigino to cut the paths more open. The children came with their <sup>things</sup>; she sewed; they played; & I read. The men worked <sup>at the</sup> <sup>forest</sup>, & finished cutting, and carrying their bamboo soon. Returned to the village at 4 P.M. The <sup>men</sup> <sup>and</sup> another white man were there, taking tea with us. The "Oku" had gone up river. Went to bed at night with a headache.

[Njormu] (Londo 1890)

On Friday, was up early: - Londo & his crew loaded up and started, by 7.30. A.M.

Rested & read all morning: - After dinner, started, at 1.15. P.M.: - Turned back, just after starting, because Monkheim had deceived me, about some chairs he wanted to go in debt about <sup>with</sup> for Antigua: felt Monkheim had abused my confidence: required the chairs to be put ashore.

In less than an hour, after starting, a rain storm came on, opposite San Pedro, sheltered the children & nurse ashore, & waited till the storm passed: At 3. P.M., proceeded, damp & chilly: Was quite chilled by the time, 6.30. P.M., that we arrived at Salapago: -

... had pulled out, hurried for a warm supper, excused the crew from evening dinner, as rain was again falling, Retired early, stiff & tired: Anjelbyne said so. by the news of the death of 4 Sepoy men, by the influenza, "La Grippe" - one of them was Njalele ("Roger Anderson") & 2 of the others were her relatives, one of them was half-brother, ...

a number of Fa'u present: chilly morning.
Pleasant afternoon

Monday, May 12th: Sent Londo & his crew, with cave, to Njonne, for bamboo (trusted): - Mr. Red-dee & Mr. Cookshut, from Njoli, <sup>port</sup> came to spend the day with me: they stayed to dinner: A canoe, on its way up river, stopped to sell plantains: - In the afternoon, walked with the guests and Maau, to the Hill.

News of the death of Nubigino, <sup>(Agemba's brother)</sup> my former cook.

Tuesday, May 13th: Began to write to son Charles, but was interrupted very often, by either the work man coming for direction, or Maau asking amusement; and then, Anyoutyua deciding that she must go to her sister Laura's morning, at Gabron, and I had to agree that (if we felt she ought to go at all) it would be better came, to day, with plantains, - the house full of plantains: - Two Fan trespassing on the premises, and shooting: some excitement in their pursuit; as a punishment, refused to allow the Fan villagers to come to my spring for water: - Was annoyed, in the evening, by Gasita's fear and nervous manner of trying to tell me he wanted to leave my service, at the end of June.

Wed. May 14. Before I sang the 6.45. A.M. prayer-hill, Etenda met me in the parlor, & excitedly told me ~~Mr~~ Abunda had left his box in his (Etenda's) home, last night, under suspicious circumstances; - that he had examined the contents, & found what he believed were goods stolen from me. I went through Etenda's room, in going to prayers, & saw Abunda's box there. After breakfast, called E., and asked him the circumstances, in his room; then, called Abunda & told him, & demanded <sup>that</sup> he should open the ~~at~~ box, in my presence, if he assented, there was nothing wrong about it. and he said Almeida had the keys. He then opened the door, and I found 2 undershirts of my store, 1 both of domestic (known by a stain on it) and $8.50 in paper money.
These a total possession of. He still denied that we had hid a stolen. But, when I went away with the goods, he told the others that I had entered the store by the window, for Saturday afternoon, while we were in Sab. K. & he being excused for his ache. An hour later, a passing canoe was hailed, and Almeida, <sup>was</sup> dismissed by it. Distressed with yesterday's trouble, & loss of sleep last night, and cast down by this revelation.
Began to tie on mokala, to the new way.
Headache; when the one side was finished, at 3. P. M., found 34 most of the 8 workmen had tied wrong, & all had to be untied; A rain came; every allowed to play out in the rain, in her bath clothes. The Thursday May 15: Felt better, having taken pro-phyllin pills, last night; Raining morning; did not go out to work; spent the morning, in writing a letter of reply to Dr. T. J. S. I intend soon to run around, in the rain, in her little clothes: The afternoon clear: Many inquiries in her <sup>spelling</sup> reading: The rains are increasing, in frequency, day by day for the general filling up of the earth, before the dry season comes.

Friday May 16: Last night, about 11.0 last, the "Eclair" passed up. This morning, followed her to George Island, to carry letters, inquire about passage, with especial reference to the possibility of Sargent's visiting Talaguya at once, to the vessel, - saw the Captain, as a horse, to Dr. B.'s gallery, & got three dollars or 10 dollars extra; went with Captain, to the boat, - packed my letters: went down to Hatti's, (while the canoe dropped down to Hatti's): - Got a debt of 8 dollars paid, at the German house, the dinner, at Hatti's.
Started back, at 1.30. P. M., in my canoe.
Was soon overtaken by the "Eclair", heard, by the captain, to go alongside for a tow. A pleasant ride down; met the "Ovivo", near Inpagai. At Talaguga, by 2.30, M: Heard many her hee: she is improving.

Mokāuni benefiting, by my explanation, on his reading of the Epistles: A heavy rain came.
Attended many to run out in the rain, in her athing clothes: began collecting vessel, etc, for the University of Pennsylvania.

Saturday May 17: Left Montāni and crew of 10, to go to the Fai villages, to harvest.
Very dark & cloudy, & slightly foggy morning.
Lying on the mekala to the remaining side of the roof of the new tent: The "Ovivo" went down river: In the afternoon, heard that the Fai, across the river, had killed 2 wild pigs: May very well these days, and rapidly improving in her lessons: she is gaining hearing: Do not feel well, am depressed.

Sabbath May 18 } A chilly rainy Sabbath. I cannot Monday " 19 } feel of Fai; entered church during the services, but did not stay long.
At night, a storm, the "Lalau" found up.

Monday, sent Gondo & crew of 5, in new freight-boat, to Ljansa, for thatch: Damp chilly day, all day; washed clothes in cold salt day:

May almost smothered the cat, forgetting we had left it covered in bed: - Wrote to Mrs. Grant:

Began a letter to Mrs. Ford: - The "Hobn" passed down: saw Ahamba, whom I dismissed for theft last week, on the steamer, putting in employ: - Was annoyed that Gondo did not return before 5 o'clock. After evening-prayer, started my oven for roasting so late: - The river is rapidly rising, above the steady point it has been rising, & is full, now more it has been for some weeks. - Power is at its perennial flood: - This house is now entirely free from rats.

Tuesday May 20: Observed, as I entered the door of the Sun Room, how directly opposite it was the sun, near the extreme of its northern end of its course, for June: - Roofed with thatch half of the sun out: - A cool clear morning: afternoon beautifully bright: - The mountains, about noon,

[Talaguza] (May 1890)

at recent stealing: it is probable there has been other stealing, a year or more ago: - The sun set grand, with rain clouds: - Rain at night: - Last night, a cat was killed (probably) a bush cat.

Wed<sup>y</sup> May 21 } On the 21st, finished the roofing Thursday " 22nd } of the new hut: - A Mr. Brown, from Orange, for Dourmas & Bernard, came for tools, and bought $26.20 in trade: In evening prayer meeting, all stated my remarks of Xmas trying to win the world & encourage them about his trying to get into the Kingdom.

On the 22nd, was sick, headache & a bilious vomiting: laid down all day: - Four came from Njima in a caravan to stay overnight: gave them quarters. One of the women had a clean baby, which had been given the name "Kere."

Foot better at night: - The "Oka" passed up on Friday Apr 23. Was well again, and felt energetic: - The building of the hut going on well: - Feel wronged that I can't obtain so little lumber, while the heathens, & the Post all have more: - The "Oka" passed down to the river.

[Talaguya] (May 1879)

Saturday May 24. Was interrupted, in my sleep, several times; last night, by a dog, and by the dog; did not feel energetic to-day.

The day was chilly and clouded. Tried to begin a letter to Aunt Bella, but could not fix my thoughts. At noon, Antyusa came, to see his sister, and stayed till the supper. Saw some medicine, which he takes now, in a very good manner.

Sabbath May 25: Rose late; many fair at church; but, a man and some women, after passing the garden, leaving the canoe with some children, till they should return with their from the garden. The boatmen left the canoe to leave. A cold wind and rain, in the afternoon. The "Galea" went down river, while we were at school. A supper, came a canoe, from Talaguya, with a load of plantain, and other things. To land and guard their plantain, till the Monday morning. Anybody's intention [There appear in my "Galea" out of school] ... of Baraha school-girl vacation presents.

Monday May 21st. Was awake & early by the noise of the negro people arranging their plantain, near the flour store: Bought a quart pile of 100 bunches of plantain: Found white ants had ascended to Augustin's room: Cool chilly day: Set to clearing away old thatch and chipping, under the house: Went out in the afternoon, thought I saw the boat, with the landing on my farm, just below the point: paddled along the river, but did not see him: and went on to some other points near his canoe (in a small area of land) but he was not seen: The second of the new house done; but no more plaster, with which to go on with the work at the gates: wrote to Peter Pella.

Tuesday May 22nd. A chilly morning: - The underneath of the house very much improved by the clearing up of clouds: Found the remains of the female duck, that was missing 4 months ago, is part of a fresh skin: This should be dead: Began to write a letter of thanks, to the Commissioner, but did not was brought for me for lunch-eating, for dinner - gathering the <sup>cassava</sup> roots today.

Monday May 20th. At the top of the hill of the hill there: but did not see it, as I was walking <sup>all</sup> for the hill, & the house on the Hill. - Argentines and the children getting cassava-roots, for starch: - In the afternoon, started the workmen, on the outlet of the premises, which is rather inconvenient, not having been cleared recently. Cold somewhat tonight of the evening by season.

Thursday May 23rd. A hot cool morning; but, the afternoon rain: - Wrote letter to Lansdowne about Lab. School: - Had to discuss the May, in afternoon, for discharging for <sup>her</sup> getting up to remove under them, for that all being well. The "Lanka" found up, like her.

Friday May 24th. Wrote a letter to R. de S.

Saturday May 31st. At 9 last night, the "Eclair" pulled up, the other, and I went off a canoe.
Word returned that there was mail for me, which they would bring, on their way down, to-day.
Wrote to Jerry Goeman: - Expected the "Eclair" at noon. It did not come; Paid the men wages, in the afternoon; - In the evening, Aika stopped, on his way to Mpaga's; Njentula & his Fan were with him, and stayed over night, for rabbits; - Fine moonlight night; - Over 2 weeks ago, Anje ntyeve told me <sup>that</sup> she had a pronunciation that a Mpangwe man was dead, and that he was surrounded by white-eyes. To-day came the news that <sup>from an elder</sup> Kommandi is dead <sup>at</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>place</sup> <sup>of</sup> <sup>Kayere</sup> (?) in prison, after a flogging; She has told me other instances of that kind of clasp-ance; - Okendo came to ask for an increase of pay.

[Talaguga] (June 1890)

Sabbath June 1st. Raze, with a sick headache:-

Just as we were going to church, the "Éclaircieur" appeared, on its way down, whistling. As the letters were important, I sent a canoe off. To my surprise, I heard that Mr. Teisacine and Oulago were on board, & the indigenous message that they "would return soon". Where had they come from?

And why? And was not Mr. Allegret? Sika and his people, at both morning service & Sab. Sch.
Several of <sup>our</sup> people sick, besides myself, including Ngâra, Etanda's wife, Okanda's wife & Rembendambé.

Monday June 2nd. Had one of the large canoes pulled up into the <sup>boat</sup> house, and the boat put outside and toward river, before Okanda and his company left:- Sika and his company stopped, on his way down:- wrote a letter to Mrs. Beechell:- the dry season has set in, and had on the ground.

Tuesday June 3rd. Copying my revised "Story of Angélique":- Had to call Léora and Melendo back, from the forest, to finish the work at clearing the bush, & breaking <sup>away</sup> of white ants.

Feel that the white-ants have reached the upper part of this house: they are very bad at Talaguza: feel depressed about the work of this station.

Wed. June 4th } Had a sick headache, all day of Thursday " 5th } the 4th; though, in the morning, I had taken a walk ~~with~~ <sup>around</sup> part of the premises, with Iza and Quay: - In the afternoon, they walked over the same ground with Argente.

On the 5th, Jain came to sell plantains: - in a Kangra canoe Sr. Jacinto, stopped, and took dinner, on his way to Mearge: his news of Sr. Casimiro's marriage: - My headache better, in the afternoon: - Quay comes going and coming.

At evening-prayer, was surprised to see only half of the company present: - where the absentees were, I do not know. - They have not acted as before. It must be some business.

Friday June 6th. A canoe came, from Ongang, with plantains for sale; was annoyed that he sent them, for I did not need them: but, bought a portion, because I did not like to send them

Monday: - The Tangwe-cause, which yesterday took the Taccuis to change, returned, on its way down; it reported that the alleged had fish come, for the winter, with a bit of February, and that this cause was up at all this year, but in the rapids: - His cause came to remove the remains of his trading-house, at the Tan tan, across the river: - Packing my box, for <sup>next</sup> Monday's journey: - Londo returned early, with a load of bamboo.

Saturday June 7th. Londo and crew went again, to Ajidun, for the remainder of my truck of bamboo: - Some jobs, for Monday's journey, fixing the rudder to the boat, - dividing the fish, for those I leave here in my absence, - and picking out the ripening plantains: - Londo returned, before 3.30 P.M. Put the boat in the water: - Housed the canoe: - Aje-ntula had honestly finished his truck: He came, and I gave him $30. new truck, for 1500 pieces of thatch, I also gave him a present of five dollars.

for Etenda: Started, at noon.

Stopped, at Njiru, to salute Ngilindo:- On to Antyawa-Kakai: saw large Hippopotami on the sand-banks. At ~~Antyawa~~ <sup>Antyawa</sup> Ongani's near Abanga<sup>creek</sup>, where he gave us a joba of fish, with the oily pa nut:- At Okendi's, by 5.30 P.M. was pleased with his attention, about five or more than in Agony's time.

On Tuesday, early up, and off by 8. A.M. The canoe pulled, & by 11.30, stopped at a nice little oxyge, below the Island-Factory. Had met the "oka" just before. Landed, at Andendi's, by 4.30 P.M. Met, at once, by Mr.
Gacon, with his story of Mr. Leage's troubles with him. Felt depressed, to meet these amayaras at once. In the evening, Leage sent a note, asking conversation with me: and, when he came said he wished to leave. I gave prompt consent.
On Wed. 7, I woke with bad news & headache.

[Kangwe] (June 1890)

Had bilious vomiting and nausea all day: so, also Mr. Gacon was taken suddenly sick. Both of us in bed. Lesage was continuing his arrangements, for his departure, & tried to induce the native teacher, Ndata, to go with him to Eaborn. Mr. Gacon's story of Lesage's evil doings: - Was a little better, at night, but distressed, by a quarrel of the school boys in the yard, & about this and when my journey should be made to Igeya; for I do not like to leave Mr. Gacon in his troubles with Lesage.

Thursday June 12th } On Thursday, the confusion Friday " 13th } with Lesage continued; he vacillated about going, and got into a wordy quarrel with Mr. Gacon, and called the latter opprobrious names. I intervened gently; and, shortly afterward, Lesage left: - Both Mr. Gacon and myself were, though better than on Wednesday, weak. Prepared for the journey to Igeya, for tomorrow; but, had to give up the plan of going down by Longwe, &c, as I would not then reach Igeya till Saturday night.

On Friday, was up early, and the crew were on hand, and the boat loaded; but Mr. Bacon's clock was late, and we did not get off till 8. A.M. (and the real time was  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour later). Was warned not to go down by way of creek Ozugaviza, because the water had fallen so: went up river around the Island: stopped at 11.30<sup>A.M.</sup> at Aveya's village, to let off Onwasango; at Ovumbi, by 11.45: ate at Ambansoni's house; left Wora's wife there: - Started again at 2. P.M. (late): - stopped at Oranga, to pay Etenda part of his month's wages: - hurried on to Igenje, had to urge the crew. Arrived, at dusk, was vexed to find my bedstead had been forgotten at Andinga: - did not feel well, and was depressed, at the want of faithfulness of the crew. Left the evening-prayer to Jongwe, who had arrived shortly after me: Tracy was not well, and needed me.

Sat. of June 14th } On Sat. of June, went, in the morning, Sabbath " 15th } by boat, down river  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile, to the Jan village, to see Abumba sick: my crew, & Eldas Wora & Jongwe, went along. Abumba was better, but unable to take part in session-work; and, as Elder Pimeon had neglected to come, from his Trading at Nyali, so, there was no quorum, & no meeting: - Pawa was there, with Abumba: - Bought 2 native stools for Augustyne's use: - A visit from Ankombe's wife & child, & present of fowl & egg "Kassau": - A present of fowl, from Ombaga's mother, & of fish from Kengwa: - In afternoon, just at close of Preparatory Service, the "Falaka" passed up: - Went to bed feeling quite depressed and uncomfortable. On Sabbath, had Communion Service; but, the attendance was few, and I did not find myself able to enjoy the Service: - Just after meeting, heard of the death of a native at Asguta: - In the morning, heard of the death of <sup>Rev</sup> ~~Mr~~ <sup>of Batanga</sup> Bui, name brought by the late Abumba, who came by "Falaka" from Lisbon.

My headache & depression continued, & did not eat any dinner: - The "Ovis" passed down river in afternoon. And, in the evening, the "Drella" anchored, to take on fire-wood, and stayed all night.

On Friday, had a bad headache all day, but attended to session. A canoe, from Oranga, brought the dying wife of Rilevi, to Aveyai village: - The Communion-bread came from Karyae, by Bivēni: -

On Saturday, Assembly meetings: - The "Falata" passed down: - Rilevi's wife died.
Sabbath June 22nd } On Sabbath, my influenza Monday " 23rd } was better; but, the services Tuesday " 24th } were somewhat heavy on my voice: 2 young men baptized.

Rilevi's wife was buried, at daylight: - Annoyed at a certain church-woman who brought me a large locust, for sale, as he was coming to church: - A good meeting, in the afternoon.

On Monday, about 2. A. M., was awakened by many wanting to sit on the vessel; and, between 6. A. M. and 6. A. M., she sat 7 times, with dysenteric pains. Gave her white of egg: and by 6. A. Thursday " 26th } Mary awoke, with her diarrhoea pains. They were less sharp than yesterday; and, between 5 and 7. A.M., she had only 3 passages: - Wrote a letter to Miss Todd. On Thursday, Mary rose well, and I felt very much relieved: - At 9. A.M., we all went, by boat, to H. & C. Factory, and got goods for the crew: Mr. Cockshut gave Mary the promise of a kitten: - Pulled up to Mr. Beaman's, and took dinner there. Mary was seized by colicky pains there, and fell asleep on Mr. Beaman's bed: - Had a bad headache, as the morning had been bright & glaring: - Quite troubled, in the evening, about Mary's weakness.

The Kabile hunter returned, with nothing but a wild Guinea fowl: Arranges a large, for what I should pay, the boat is planned for an early departure on Monday.

On Sabbath, held public Religious services: a fight between 2 of the village slaves.

On Monday 7th, the crew were up by 4 A.M. I rose at 5 A.M., and we left at 7 A.M. just at starting, bought a small dried fish for the crew: Bought also a large antelope skin. The crew pulled admirably, "beautified" the islands; one large island covered, at the water's edge, by amaryllis plants: Reached Ngâwâ's village, Doaulimâulâ, by 10 A.M. A canoe, with Gacita & Okitoulone, stopped here, on their way to fish in the Lake: Reached Oveimbano, by 4.30 P.M. A very fine trip!

On Tuesday 8th, rose early; Okaulingo engaged with us, for work at Salaguga: Mupengi, agreed to go on with us, and row pulled well: Stopped at the heron house <sup>at Lembarene</sup>, & found that the "Dualla" would not attempt to go up river this day.

were trying to make a little steam-launch of their own: Mr. G. & I, tried to get the kitten, which had been promised nearly 10 days before; but, it could not be found. Messrs. Bates & Wheeler were then: Mr. Smith up the river: - At Auderville, by run-down, Mr. Bacon cut well. Stayed at Auderville overnight.

On Wed. 9th, Tubala came, early in the morning, from the Hill, saying his divi-ants had attacked the 2 little gowles, in the night. Indeedly with Maimin, Lero, & little Nupengi, was amazed at Tubala's cruelty - and laziness in not going, at the gowles' cries, at night, to save them: Took the animals to Auderville: one of them died at noon, and Mr. Bacon carefully opened the skull for me. Busy gathering the goods & boxes, for the journey to Talagega. Am quite out of money, & money is longed for Talagega. Dismissed Tubala from my service. Many hurt her sore hand ~~but~~ and there was some trouble about it. The gilla died, <sup>with</sup> Māmbā, after long work till midnight, I carefully opened the skull.

On Friday 11th, pulled well, & ate at Belcambita. Rebuked some of the crew for troubling my personal servants about cooking. Stopped a little while, at Onedon. ~~At night~~ camped on the Aguelata sand-bar. Atendanga and others came to salute us. Fair came, to sell plantains, but I would not buy, being vexed at their mispronunciation of our name! A very windy night.

On Saturday 12th, the Fair came again, but I again refused for the same reason; but I bought, of 2 Fair women, started late. Ate in the forest, just beyond Remon's Beach. At Ajim, at Antigua, 10th, by 4 P.M.
